

Infant 1 Newsletter

April 2024

Dates to remember

Monday, April 1st- No School

Tuesday, April 2nd - Graham's 1st Day

Wednesday, April 17th - Mrs. Daisy's Birthday

Reminders

- please send your little ones with a jacket and shoes, as we will start spending time outside as the weather permits.
- please clip your little ones nails
- please make sure everything is labeled with your little one's name
- please bring a variety of clothes to keep here as our classroom temperature varies by day
- please keep in mind that we have a drop-off cut-off time policy (be at daycare by 10:00 am) to ensure we are appropriately prepared for teachers' breaks/lunches and teacher-to-baby ratio from day to day.

Guess what I'm doing...

Lucas: I can pull up to a stand and talk a lot now! I am working on walking with support.

Cooper: I can walk/run now. I am working on using soft hands.

Addisyn: I am now standing on my own! I am working on walking with help.

Rosalie: I am crawling very well! I am also starting to pull up to a stand!

Luke: I am shoulder crawling! I am working on crawling with my belly off the ground!

Graham: I am new to First School! I am meeting my new teachers and classmates
